

BABY NAME IDEAS

Need a name for a new human? These popular name categories have worked out to some degree for billions of humans everywhere, so why not for your nameless child!

Instructions: Do what it says in the left column. Write down the name in the right column which will be your list of name suggestions! If it helps, you can keep a specific gender in mind when you come up with your names.

DO THIS:	WRITE NAME HERE:
 Quick! Write down the first common name that pops into your head!
 Open a Map app or website. Close your eyes. Pan and zoom around. Point to a spot with your finger. Write down the word closest to your finger. (Spin a globe if you're old school!)
 What is today's month, day of the week or season?
 Name your favorite weather type or weather event.
 Open your Twitter/Instagram/Facebook feed. Close your eyes. Scroll fast! Open your eyes. Start reading until you see a word that could be used to address a human.
 What is your favorite flower?
 What was the last fruit you ate?
 Open your compass app. Write down the direction you are currently facing.

DO THIS:

WRITE NAME HERE:

Write down a name you like.

Write down another name you like.

Now mash those names together using parts of both names.

What is a name that is shared by at least 3 people you know?

Combine it with the name you mashed up previously for a super unique name that probably nobody has.

Think of a word related to money, power or wealth.

Open up your music library. Sort by Artist. Scroll quickly, stop randomly and point to an artist.

Pick a name. Now make up a new alternative way to spell it.

Write down the first name of a historical figure you admire.

What was the make or model of your first car?

Name a character from your favorite movie or tv show.

Take your name or your partner/parent/grandparent's name. Add junior or a number to it.